Readings for Sunday, July 24, 2016
11th Sunday after Pentecost – Year C

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12-14; 2:18-23

Psalm 49:1-12

Colossians 3:1-11

Luke 12:13-21

The liturgical color for this Sunday is GREEN.

Reflections on this week's readings:

Where do you place your faith? Does the idea of trusting God for protection, provision and justice sound naive and unrealistic to you? Yet, this is exactly what the Scriptures call us to do – to live differently from the self-protective, wealth accumulating, customs of our world, and place our trust in God. In the face of the huge challenges we face in the world this may sound completely out of touch, but, when the role of money in so many of those challenges is recognised, the call to give up our faith in finance and reclaim a true, child-like faith in God becomes disturbingly relevant and subversive.

May your worship this week move you into a place of deeper trust in God, and more courageous challenge of the culture of accumulation in our world.

Prayer for today:

Gracious Father, your blessed Son came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world. Give us this bread, that he may live in us and we in him, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT PEACE IN CHRIST

OUR MISSION AT PEACE IN CHRIST CHURCH

We, the members of PIC Church, are a Christian family, united by our common faith in Christ. We strive to love God with our whole hearts and to love our neighbors as ourselves. We seek God's kingdom in our everyday lives so that we may bring Christ to our world, and our world to Christ.
